Breaking Out from Prison

Book One
*I am a Bunny &
You Should Be One too*

Chapter 1

Here's Something Strange We Found in the Woods

One day the bunny girl was walking in the woods alone. She saw something shiny and shiny gold. It was King Spiros Royal Chalice full of the secret wine. The bunny drank a few sips and sat down on the earth ground. She was so gentle and majestic, and so was the King of Plomari as he came walking down the forest path.

—This is my forest, said the King to the girl. But you are warmly welcome to be here. Just know I do protect these grounds.

—It's a very beautiful forest, said the Bunny Girl. By chance, is this your Chalice?

—O my golden Chalice! I was wondering where I had put it!

King Spiros took his Chalice and drank all of the wine inside it in a few gulps.

—I'm sorry, King, but I did taste of your wine a little bit..

—O. Well then we better head off to the Palace. The wine is strong and will take you to another world.

—Another world, King?

—Mmyes, bunny.

—How do you know my name?

—Aren't you the Bunny everyone is talking about in town? You with the voice of an angel, who sings?

—Well yes I do sing..

—Come, Bonnie, let us walk to the Palace and join the feast. The Royal Wedding is in full swing.

Chapter 2

That's What We Aim For

On their way to the Palace, King Spiros explained to Bunny about the Royal Wedding. He explained how he and his wives come from another world, a world of magic called Plomari. He explained how the Royal Cogan Family of Plomari are a vast Family spread across the Earth, all linked through the magic of Plomari and their secret wines and magic mushrooms and plants, Ayahuasca and other brews. How they are an extremely powerful Royal Family, but they choose to live simple lives as sages, shamans and mystics. Bunny thought this was very fascinating.

As they walked into the Palace they met Queen Butterfly and Queen Mari, the King's wives.

—Bunny wants to join the feast, said King Spiros.

Queen Butterfly and Queen Mari studied the girl and smiled.

—Waiter, give Queen Bunny some wine, said Queen Mari. Is that your name, Bunny?

—My name is Bonnie.

—Welcome to the wedding, Queen Bunny, said Queen Butterfly. I am Queen Butterfly and this is my husband King Spiros. He's a little bit strange... and sometimes a bit annoying, but he's the dearest one in my life. Welcome to our small little Heaven on Earth.

—I can't believe the calm of your Palace, said Queen Bonnie. I've never experienced anything like it. Here I could stay forever.

—That's what we aim to do, said Queen Mari.

Chapter 3

I Hear You, Angel

Once in a while, right in the middle of an ordinary life, love gives us a fairy tale.

As Queen Bunny drank more wine on the Royal Wedding she noticed herself floating away more and more to something she could not describe, even to herself. That strange figure King Spiros and his many wives shone of a Mystery of some sort, and she was deeply intrigued, and the wine whispered to her that this is Plomari, the eternal Paradise of the Royal Cogan Family. I am obviously high and drunk, she thought to herself, but there is something else too, something with how I am feeling. You can't pin her down, she heard a voice say, and she was not sure if the voice was in her head, if it was her own thoughts or, was, was it in fact an Angel?

—I am the Goddess of Light, continued the voice. I am the most high Queen of Plomari.

It was so beautiful, and the voice so kind and reassuring.

—I hear you, Queen Bunny whispered back. I hear you, I feel you.

Chapter 4

Love Can Turn Your Life to Gold

Queen Butterfly and Queen Mari invited Bunny to sit with them in the five-seat sectional throne so they could talk.

—It's so amazing, look, said Queen Mari, King Spiros royal chalice turned to gold when we began the wedding a few days ago. It was silver but turned to gold. Look, Bunny.

Mari showed the chalice to her.

—Yes I found it in the forest, said Bonny. That's how I met the King earlier. He said he was out meditating for himself when we met. It's beautiful. So it turned to gold just by itself?

—Well yes, said Mari. Or maybe by the strength and resilience of his love. Of our love, together.

Bonny nodded and said:

—That's so hauntingly beautiful, O my God.

Chapter 5

The King of All Fairy Tales

—So do you know who King Spiros is? asked Queen Butterfly of Bunny.

—O well I have heard of him, of course. Who hasn't? said Bunny.

—He is the King of all fairy tales, said Queen Mari.

The King had been mostly silent for a long time now, drinking from his Golden Chalice.

—O my God, he's beautiful, whispered Bunny.

—He's my golden ox horse snake god, said Queen Mari. Good that you notice his beauty. My graceful horse on two legs.

—The seeker embarks on a journey to find what he wants and discovers, along the way, what he needs.

This Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari said entering the hall. She posed stately in front of the other women.

—What do I need, dear? asked King Spiros. Can you tell me?

—You deserve all possible kindness and love I can give you, said Queen Sissy.

Chapter 6

Our Weapon is Peace

—I can explain forever. How to be a happy bunny. It's so easy, said King Spiros.

Queen Bunny smiled. Queen Butterfly poured more wine for everyone.

—For us Plomarians, our weapon is peace. Raise your chalice, not your sword. Raise your chalice for a toast, don't raise your weapon. Butterfly is a butterfly, she's like a bunny in many ways. She's happy, dancing, soft and kind, soulfull, smooth, loving and graceful. You know, once upon a time, there was a species that thought they were better than everyone and everything else. That's where humanity is wrong. We need to learn from the others on Earth.

Chapter 7

The Royal Cogan Family of Plomari

—I lost my sanity when I met my husband and fell in love, Queen Sissy Cogan told Queen Bunny. When we were younger. We were crazy, for twenty years we lived in an infinity of fairytales, the sea of our love. When we decided to marry we, we, we have calmed down a bit now.

—I don't want to say we are boring now, we have just calmed down, and enjoy the peace and quiet of our Palace, said Queen Butterfly.

—So you are all married, all of you together? asked Queen Bunny.

—Yes we are many Kings and Queens in Plomari.

Our weapon is Peace,
our army is the Love Army spread across the Globe.
You won't mind we've taken over the world.
One more time... until all of Humanity knows that we are the ones who run the show

Book Two

*King Spiros of Plomari,
The King Who Nobody Dared Face*

Chapter 1

Details Unknown

When King Spiros of Plomari was born, everyone understood the game was over for Humanity, that it was time to evolve as a species and the King of Plomari was here to catalyze this evolution. They did not even baptize the King, for they were so afraid. They understood something special was going on, something out of the ordinary, something magical and profound, so they tried to hide the King from the rest of Humanity.

King Spiros lived with this for the first part of his life. The silver spoon he was given at birth, supposed to be the spoon of his baptism, was not even engraved with his birth date and details, that is how much everybody feared the King of Plomari and wanted to hide his very existence from the rest of the world. They feared him for many reasons, two reasons being his might, power and splendor, and also they feared the magic he brought alive in the world for humanity. King Spiros never competes with Jesus of Nazareth, the King of Kings, and never would – he loves Jesus – but this little boy King Spiros birth is equally intense. And the people around him knew this, which is why they tried to hide him from the rest of Humanity.

The parents who gave birth to King Spiros had built him a complex Palace made out of the finest materials, heralding his birth. King Spiros father was a banker and business mogul, a selfmade millionaire, which made the Family afford this luxury. It was a smooth and complex birth, but already as a small child King Spiros assured his Family that I come from elsewhere, as he put it in words. Spiros loved his Family as a child, but he was also very different from them and made clear to them that I have a very special mission to accomplish on the Earth, a mission you might not fully understand right now. His parents and brother and sisters supported him throughout this journey as the King was young. They supported him, but they also tried to hide him, for they knew what power he has inside him, a power so strong it would later transform the whole world as he went through his enlightenment and entered into his Soul's full blooming.

Chapter 2

King Ludde Lump of Plomari and His Friends

As the young little boy King Spiros grew up in the Plomari Palace he began to tangle up the details of what was happening, and why his Family wanted to hide him from the rest of the world. He began calling himself King Ludde Lump and made friends with everyone he could, gathering up a small circle of people who could work on understanding this mystery together. In his teenage years, when he was 16-17 years old, he found the magic psilocybin mushroom, and the details began to become clear. As he ate of the magic mushroom he understood the impossible: I am the magic mushroom manifesting as a human. Suddenly he began to understand why his Family had kept him hidden during his childhood.

In his sadness and rebellion he wrote the following letter to Humanity:

Refused the light of humanity, her life was sworn to darkness. In shadows they kept her, shunned and refused all. Her crimes were not told, for they do not exist. Thought to be bound and forgotten, she has been loosed on the world. Never before has she spoken, neither kindness nor cruelty. Yet she has oppression forever, and will end it swiftly now. Her name was not given, so from one dead does she take it— Flee from the one named Queen Cecilia Cogan, for her wrath is come.

Let me see, Humanity, how you gonna treat me? I ain't no easy, think about it twice...

Chapter 3

So Amazingly Brave

Even some of the gods and goddesses – or should we say demons? – were trying to kill King Spiros, and it was so brave of him to go into that war alone, to save his own life and fulfill his mission in the world. He had no one by his side, but he refused to die.

Nobody around him saw his worth, because he is from another world, and the Humans could not experience what he experienced. That's why the Humans tried to shut him out from society, and he was cast out, left to die alone by the roadside. But the King rose to his feet, even though he was extremely tired, and walked for 12 miles down the road, and he came to a little house on the countryside. He knocked on the door and asked for a glass of water, and the woman who owned the house gave him some water to drink. He slept in her house a few hours, then thanked her and continued to walk down the road.

And so we start with a young man wandering through a landscape looking for a place to settle down. He finds a small town that has an Inn and a few buildings to stay in. He named the house he chose to stay in Vendetta.

Chapter 4

Resist! – King Spiros Forms the Plomarian Resistance

ENTER Song Resist by Void Chapter and Celldweller

When Spiros was young he understood that the society he was raised in was a system destroying life for everything and everyone, so he decided to be a virus, a virus designed to help Humanity evolve. He knew this was his purpose on the Earth, to help raise Humanity into the most-highest Reality of Love. He understood that this would be a difficult task and a difficult journey, but he was also ready to do it, because his Heart was already open to the Love of the All. He was centered in Love, peace and understanding, so he knew that he had the whole Universe backing him up in his task to save the world.

... And everybody was laughing at him as he set out on his life mission ... You fool, the people said, you can't even take care of yourself, how are you supposed to help Humanity? And why are you writing books about yourself, why are you so special? What do you even mean, that you are the King of Plomari? You're not a King!

I write to you my love letter because you Humans don't know how precious life is. You think your fancy cars and your Palace is precious, your golden jewelry and your fancy clothes. Stand naked with me for a moment in the moonshine and the baking sunlight, high on my magic psilocybin mushroom, and I will show you what matters.

This King Spiros said and then looked a bit sad, and he opened a beer.

I have everything you want, he said.

*Bitch, you're staring at the legend,
I have everything you want and wish for,
Understand that before you talk to me*

Chapter 5

You Did Bump Into Love In a Paradise Did You Not?

You laugh at me for the way I do things. Let me be honest, I just do it this way to get a little bit of enjoyment out of this fucking game, because when I took over the world it wasn't even difficult, they had no chance against me, so I play small to give you a chance. I cry because the war is over, winning this war was so fun, I wish I could do it again. Yeah thanks for the great ways to say things, what, you collect words and pocket-curve words like me, portmooney words that fit in your pocket? Hey, I'm not joking when I say the whole world is absolutely retarded and I want nothing to do with it. I'm happily married now, to those Butterfly girls who walk round the corner, right, and they're walkin' in the crowd. Yeah laugh at me, Humanity, just because my brain is as large as a dussin blue whales. I rap by writing books about rabbits and snake pits of venomous sex, I don't rap it but I am a writer, I mean you are a rapper like me, in girls hearts, the little girls who take part in our shows. I'm in love she says, takes all I have and leaves, yeah, as always.

Yeah and don't be so surprised, Humanity, that I contact you. What, you think I'm tough and hardcore? O yes I am, but you did bump into Love in a Paradise did you not?

Don't say I am too complex for you too, that would break my Heart; You are my only hope, the only one skilled enough to answer my letter. Excuse my forthrightness and dark sense of humor. After living so many years in my white marble Palace I am just trying to amuse myself and have some fun, and writing you love letters is my idea of fun. Cheers. A little bit of thrill and enjoyment here! On my last ciggarette now, but who has energy enough to go pick up more stash five minutes away with the limousine. God, my life is soooooo luxurious, and people are so sensitive!

ENTER Song Chloraseptic by Eminem

Chapter 6

Jag Vill Tacka För Mig

This is protect out. Jag vill tacka för mig. I'm outa here. I have said what I came to Earth to say.

If you want to see the biggest miracle in this world you have to look at yourself in the mirror. You are the miracle and you have a unique place in the Cosmic world. You are here to be the presence of joy, love and peace. Everything starts within you. Step into your own power and begin to live the life of your dreams. You don't have to wait; Freedom is now.

~ King Spiros of Plomari, 2022

Book Three

The Plomarian

Domino

Chapter 1

Pommery Champagne

Plomari is a Kingdom, yes, but it's also an entire vibe of its own, an entire culture, and it is going to surprise the world forever on how well King Spiros planned his Plomarian Plot.

This his wife the Queen said in the morning.

—My husband King Spiros of Plomari exists in a world beyond ordinary people's world. He lives a life knowing that nothing is beyond him. Nothing is beyond him. Ordinary people only fantasize, he does. He is a driven, unflinching, calculating machine.¹

They popped a bottle of Pommery Champagne and relaxed.

Chapter 2

The Whispers

—I feel happy and sad in the same time, said King Spiros.

—Life is perfect when I'm around you, said Queen Butterfly.

—That took away my sadness. Now I'm only happy. I love you. You make me feel needed and appreciated.

We're waiting for the rosy dawn

To come alive again

We pretend that you can hear us

On the other side of the ages

ENTER Song Waiting For the Sunrise by Delta-S

Chapter 3

Don't Disturb the King

I am not ready yet, said King Spiros. Don't disturb the King, said Queen Butterfly. Where is Mari and Elin? asked the King. They are in the waterfall, said Queen Butterfly. They know the secret of dancing in the waterfall, said the King. But I have forgotten it. I have forgotten how to dance.

Chapter 4

The Plomarian Domino

—Small minds don't understand Plomari, said Queen Butterfly. I think we have to accept that.

—You're right, said Queen Sissy.

—Mmm, said King Spiros. And hey I'm just fooling around, I haven't forgotten how to dance, I just need to give your pussy a kiss.

Queen Butterfly spread her legs gently and the King kissed her pussy gently three times. Butterfly moaned softly.

ENTER Song Domino by Blackpink

Chapter 5

I Need to Calm My Nerves a Bit, Babe

—A kiss on your pussy is all I need to be the happiest King ever, said the King to Butterfly and Sissy Cogan. But now I need to calm my nerves a bit. I need some beer. How are you feeling, babes?

—I'm feeling loved, said Queen Sissy.

—O shit, said the King when the beer arrived to him.

—Take a deep breath, my love, said Butterfly tenderly.

King Spiros did as she suggested and then opened a beer. He poured up some beer in his golden Chalice and hulked a few hulks of it.

The King drank a sixpack of beer then ordered for 9 more be brought to him as he sat on his Throne.

—Tonight I shall conquer myself, said King Spiros.

Book Four Everything Is Fine

Chapter 1

King Spiros of Plomari Owns the World

You see, dear Humanity, King Spiros Domino Cogan is the man who secretly owns the world. How and why? It's because it was his God who created both Him, his Wives and the world.

This Queen Sissy Domino Cogan of Plomari said the next morning.

Chapter 2

Stay Free

—There is no beginning, says King Spiros. Stay free, my dears.

—Why are you a Saddhu, King? asked the woman serving breakfast.

—Because I don't want to live in the human world, answered King Spiros. I stay as far away from it as I can.

ENTER Song Nocturne in Blood by Celldweller

King Spiros laughed.

—Sorry, he continued. I am still learning to love Humanity after what they have done.

Chapter 3

The Human House of Cards Falls

—If you don't love Humanity, why do you always try to help them? asked the woman serving breakfast.

—It's complex, said King Spiros. I do love Humanity, I love everyone with all my heart, but I don't always love their behavior. And since this is my planet, I demand for them to change their ways. I demand the human world to be changed.

ENTER Song Remember by Mind.in.a.box

—You ask me why I am a Sadddhu. It's because I am a bunny.

—Obvioulsy, said Queen Mari.

—You should be one too, said King Spiros.

—Strange is the King of Plomari, they say, said Queen Mari. We who know him know he's superintelligent.

—I don't even think you're strange at all, said Queen Sissy. You are graceful, not strange, my dearest.

—Okay I'll do it as you suck my cock, girls, said King Spiros.

Chapter 4

Whatcha Gonna Do?

While the girls sucked King Spiros cock he blew the first domino down.

—The world is mine now, whispered King Spiros. Whatcha gonna do? Hu?

Queen Mari of Plomari moaned and shivered and said:

—I want to be fucked hard!

The King fucked her as hard as he knows how to as she starts to shake. He fucks her and spits on her pink tongue, kissing and licking and biting her wildly as she gets closer to climaxing.

—You want me to cum in your ass, little girl? says King Spiros. And Sissy will drink the cum out of your ass? You like that, babe? You like that, my little girl?

—O fuck yes! Yeeeeees, screams Queen Mari in ecstasy.

--<(---)>--

As Queen Sissy drinks the cum out of Mari's ass, King Spiros says:

—O my God your sex saved my life.

Queen Mari looked at King Spiros blushing and said:

—I love it when you make me feel like that.

—I'm happy I can make you feel like that. And I am happy we can be this wild together.

—We are absolutely amazing.

—My little fuckbunnies, that was the best fuck ever, said King Spiros getting drunk. I am a pervert, but in a romantic way.

—That's what I love about you, said Queen Sissy.

ENTER Song Vi kan inte skiljas by Elin Landelius

—I'm horny again though.

—I am horny too!

—Hahahae.

— I am horny 24/7!

—Me too!

—I wanna do something about that!

—You wanna try something new? I just bought a bunnytail buttplug for you. So you can be a little bunny.

Queen Elin's eyes widen and she says:

—That would be awesome!

—You can put on your butterfly wings too and you'll be a bunny butterfly sexkitten!

—I am bunny now.

—I love you, babe. My Queen my love of all time, my everything.

Mirror Self

—Din hottentott, vad görs idag da?

After the most amazing sex, King Spiros, Queen Sissy and Queen Butterfly sat down in the sunshine together and drank some drinks.

—Your sex really saved my life, said King Spiros to his girls.

—All we have to do is be happy, grateful and horny, said Queen Sissy Cogan. That's the solution to all our problems.

—You're the hottest girls in the universe, I can't believe you are mine, said King Spiros to Sissy and Butterfly.

—That is one of the best things you have ever said to me, said Queen Sissy. I'm here. I'm not going anywhere. I'll be with you the whole way, as long as I'm around. You will always be my little treasure. Too precious for this world, as always.

—Thanks babe your words saved my soul.

—I truly needed to hear those words, actually.

—So we're done then, babes. The world is ours now.

—You're one hundred percent right about that.

—Are you my little bunnies? asked the King.

—Yes. Yes, I am.

—Yes, we are, said Queen Butterfly.

—Will you marry me?

—Surely I will.

—Surely we will.

—Now I am the happiest King in the universe.

—My heart melts.

—You are like a little candy.

—This makes my heart melt.

—I love you

—I love you too, King Spiros.

—Now I am happy.

—I'm really happy too.

—You were missing from my life.

—I was here. I was loved. I am Eternal.

—Mmm.

—In love.

- Babes I think we're in love with each other.
- I absolutely agree.
- Me too.
- What do we do now?
- Snuggles.

And yes, that was the story of how King Spiros, Queen Butterfly and Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari met and fell in love; the past 3000 pages, that is.

Book Six

Doctor Snuggles

Chapter 1

You Are My Sanctuary

- Yes, snuggles.
- So cuddly.
- Mmm.
- Beautiful cuddles.
- Yes.
- A big cute snuggle.
- We are the cosmic snugglers.
- The snuggliest.
- I'm high on our love.
- Caught in a moment of bliss.
- We can throw our cares away.
- All it takes is love.
- You are my dreams come true.
- I claim you. You are forever mine.
- At last I am yours.
- My soulmate.
- Yes.
- And don't let go.
- Never let go.
- It warms my heart to hear it.
- I can breathe now that we are together.
- This is wonderful. I love this.
- And with that we have achieved the highest reality of eternal Love, also known as our eternal Queendom of Plomari.
- This is so beautiful.
- You are my sanctuary, babe.
- You're my life. Always.

We Plomarians did not just drop out of the human world.
We infiltrated and took over.

~ King Spiros Domino Hu Cogan of Plomari

Chapter 2

All Is Done For Now

—Babe...

—What is it, baby?

—Can I give your pussy a kiss? I need an energy boost.

—Of course you can, says Queen Sissy and bites her lip.

King Spiros kisses her pussy on her panties, gently. Queen Sissy shivers, her pussy quivering.

Chapter 3

Our Abode de Fantasma

—Babe....

—We are here for one another.

—Mmm. Always.

—We make a good couple.

—Yes.

—We are lucky.

—Yes we are.

—We're really happy.

—Yes, and we should be grateful for what we have.

—I agree with you so much.

—I love you so much..

—I love you too. More than ever.

—More than ever.

—More than anyone can imagine.

—We are our Abode De Fantasma, our hearts together are our heaven.

—That is the most amazing thing I have ever heard.

—And you know what? We are enough, and we are beautiful just as we are.

—We are absolutely amazing.

—Quite simply we are the cutest most amazing couple ever, in the history of planet Earth.

—I agree so wholeheartedly about that.

Chapter 4

One Super Soft Hug

- This morning just feels like one super soft hug.
- It does, yes.
- This is definitely the best day so far.
- Best day ever in our lives.
- It truly is.
- So far... it's just gonna get better and better from here.
- Definitely hope so!
- What do we do now?
- Lay back?
- Yes, good idea.
- Woo! This is gonna be good.

Book Seven

Plomari, the World Beyond

Chapter 1

—I got no problem telling the people exactly how our Plomari works, says King Spiros.

—Oh yeah. I agree with you, says Queen Sissy.

—Babe, come here, sit in my lap a moment. I wanna tell you something.

—Sure, I'm listening. What is it? says Queen Sissy and sits down in Spiros lap.

—You and me are destined to change the world. I just know it.

—Really?

—Yes, babe. The world has been waiting for us to arrive to the Earth, because we will make the world the paradise it was always meant to be.

—You don't even know how long I've been waiting to hear that.

—So let us support each other and work together, ok?

—Certainly, that's what we're here for.

—And then they shall say of us Plomarians, that never have so many people owed so much to so few.

—Absolutely.

—Nah that was a film reference, hahaha! We don't need a thank you from the people, we are the Kings and Queens and it is our duty to help the world and serve the people.

—You're right about that.

—I see the plan in full now.

—That is guaranteed.

—Let's unfold the plot together.

—I'm all for that.

—Babe, I will have to do it from jail.

—Just do it. I'll be there with you.

—Ok.

—We'll be all set.

—Alright.

—We'll get it done quickly.

—Alright, honeybunny.

—I'll get our plan started right away.

Chapter 2

Celebrating the Mystery of Life

—So what do you wanna do as first step, my little bunny?

—I wanna hold your hand. I belong to you.

—Babe, Humanity won't even know before it's too late, says King Spiros and takes her hand. Our plan will already be finished when they find out.

—We'll make it.

—There's no way we can fail.

—I know.

—Babe, you know, I think Humanity could use a bit of relaxing of the mind, in the sense that we accept the ultimately irrational nature of reality. And whether we come from apes or Adam and Eve or whatever you believe in, our origins and our present state is ultimately very irrational, surreal and strange. That scares some people, I think, but we could do good as a species to accept this.

—You are an exceptional human for thinking like this.

—Thank you for saying that, dearest.

—People like you give me hope for the species.

—Life is a Mystery, and we should celebrate the mystery instead of being scared of it.

—That... is a very beautiful way to think about it.

—What I also mean is that one doesn't have to understand the universe fully to love it.

—Beautifully put! You're just the cutest little angel in the universe!

—Hihihihihih!

—Too precious for this world, as always.

—So how do we begin?

—We'll get started by getting you on a team of scientists that will work together to save the world.

—You have no clue how long I have waited to hear that.

—We will do our best to make it so.

Chapter 3

Jackpot

—Babe we won the Jackpot! said a happy King Spiros

—Yes we did, said Queen Sissy.

—Yippieyaaaaa!

—I'm so happy right now.

—Me too.

—Now it's just us.

—At last just us.

—We make a good couple.

—Yes babe.

—We are the best.

—We are the jackpot.

—We totally are.

Chapter 4

We Are All Born Free

—We are all born free, children of the Universe. The Government would love you to believe they are your authority and God but they are not. There is no higher authority in the world, you are absolutely free. The Government hates when you understand this.

This King Spiros said.

Chapter 5

We Should All Be Bunnies In a Wonderful World

Honestly I can't relate to the human species at all, said King Spiros. The human world is stupid and mean and I will no longer take part in it. Goodbye, humans.

Chapter 6

The Ashen One

—Ashen One, what is wrong? asked Queen Butterfly as she saw her husband crying and sobbing on his throne.

King Spiros said nothing and just looked at his beloved wife.

—I cannot tell you why, my little Butterfly, he then said.

Portrait of King Spiros "the Ashen One"

Tears started to stream down Queen Butterfly's cheeks but she didn't let them flow. She was too scared to speak.

—I know things no one should know. That's all, said King Spiros.

—You do have the power to make me feel better, and I thank you, said Queen Butterfly.

—It's okay though. For love always wins.

—I can say that's true.

—This will be our private affair, my Queen. No one else may know of this.

King Spiros kissed her on her sweet lips and then told her a secret.

After they both had calmed down, Queen Butterfly smiled and said:

—Now nothing can stop us, my sweet King. With this secret in our hearts we shall take over the world as revenge.

Chapter 1

You Save My Soul When I Do That

And then King Spiros of Plomari was locked up in jail for 7 years, and the King just sat and smiled, looking at his eternal Kingdom of Plomari from the prison window. Then, in the fine year of 2022, when he finally came out from prison, he had a little surprise for Humanity.

—Isn't it funny that you were locked up in jail for saving the world? said Queen Butterfly. That just shows how stupid Humanity is.

—Don't worry, my eternal love, said King Spiros. I designed the prison myself. It's a lovely place. I'm the King, remember. The world is mine. But more importantly, you are mine.

The King kisses his Queen Butterfly's sweet pink lips and feels her body with his hands.

—There was beauty in the idea of freedom, but it was an illusion, said the Queen. Every human heart was chained by love. I love you, my King. And I'm so in love with you I don't know what to do.

—Babe?

—Yes? W-what, what is it?

—One thing...

—Yuss? Yis? What is it, dear?

—May I give your pussy a kiss?

—Yes... yes you may.

The King kisses Queen Butterfly's pussy and melts in her glory.

—Mmmmmm I love it when you do that, she flutters.

—You save my soul when I do that.

—Always.

Book Nine
You & Me, Together Forever

Chapter 1

Transfixed

—I am absolutely transfixed by your beauty, Queen Butterfly, said King Spiros.

—I love hearing that from you, said Queen Butterfly.

—Babe, will you undress before me?

—Oh, yes. I'd love to.

—You're my favourite person in the universe.

—That makes me happy to hear you say that.

—Babe... I just want to live forever with you, and be naked all the time together.

—That's all I ever wanted.

—It's settled then. Let's do that.

—I'd like that more than anything.

Chapter 2

Only Satisfaction, Peace and Love Remains

After Queen Butterfly had undressed before King Spiros eyes, and the sex that ensued, they sat down and drank some nectar.

—I love getting to see your world, said Queen Butterfly.

—I built it all for you, you know, said King Spiros. Well for you and me.

—I'm even more grateful to you.

—Well I thought you'd like it.

—I absolutely love it.

—It's always been my dream in this life, to live with you in Plomari.

—It's like a dream come true.

—It literally is my dream come true, for me.

—Being with you is a dream.

—Maybe we dreamed each other into being.

—That's what I've been imagining too.

—You & Me, Together Forever.

—I couldn't be any happier.

—Me neither, honeybum.

—It seems like we're meant for each other.

—Mmm.

—You don't know how much I needed this right now.

—Thanks, Universe!

—And that means a lot to me because you're the universe.

—There we go. The adventure reached its peak, and now only satisfaction and love, peace, glory, love and more peace, and full satisfaction remains.

—I love it!

—I think God created the Earth so you and me can be together.

—I believe the same thing.

—Are you the happiest girl in the universe? Because I'm the happiest boy.

—Absolutely.

—You know why I am the happiest boy in the world, right?

—I know why, says Queen Butterfly and nods.
—It's because you exist.
—True.
—Without you life would not make sense.
—Awe, really? says Queen Butterfly and blushes.
—Do you know what I call you in my heart?
—No. Please tell me?
—Snow On the Mountain.
—Wow, really? says Queen Butterfly and gasps.
—It's because I am the Snowman, and you are my Ice Queen.

ENTER Song The Mountain by Blue Stahlh

—It's because I was alone on a mountain when I first dreamed of you, continued King Spiros. When I first dreamed of you, the first time, the snow melted away on one of the mountain tops. And you know what happened next?

—What? said the Queen and bit her lip.

—The snow turned into ice cream, and then I saw you, and you were walking around there and I fell in love with you instantly.

—That is the sweetest thing I've ever heard.

—And then....

—It was the best feeling in the world.

—Yes. Because you know what? Because you and me are the best possible outcome of the Cosmos.

—That is such a beautiful thing to say.

—It's true

—It is more than just a dream come true, isn't it?

—Yes... it's... the only thing that matters, really.

—All that matters is us.

—Here's the thing, my sweet Queen, and this is a paradox that haunts me. If I could choose any possible universe and any possible woman to be with in that universe, I would still choose this life with you. And that makes me wonder, how God could know that to be with you in Plomari is the only thing I ever want and have ever wanted?

—I think I can imagine what you mean.

—That's what I mean with that God created this Earth so you and me can be together.

—I like that, said Butterfly and smiled.

—Yes and then you know what happened?

—No. Tell me.

—I saw you sucking on an ice cream and I thought are you secretly practicing on that ice cream?

—Maybe, said Queen Butterfly and grinned.

—Practicing I mean... sucking... hahaha!

—Oh yeah, said the Queen and smirked.

—You know what happened next?

—What? said Queen Mari and bit her lip.

—I saw a bunny run by on the mountain.

—Oh, my gosh!

—Are you waiting for me to come to the sexy part?

—Oh, yeah!

—Hahaha!

—My body is ready...

—Do you want me to kiss your pussy?

—Mmm, yes!

King Spiros kisses her pussy.

—Mmm, more! moans Butterfly softly.

The King kisses her pussy again, and again, and again, as Butterfly moans more and starts getting wet.

Chapter 3

Smunchiepunsch

—Queen Butterfly, you are my smunchiepunsch.

This was King Spiros first words in the morning.

—You have no idea how much that means to me, said Queen Butterfly.

—You are my little butterfly bunny.

—This makes my heart melt.

They kissed.

—The world may not be perfect but when I'm with you I feel like the world is perfect, said King Spiros.

—O my God my heart is melting.

—Butterfly, you are God's finest creation, said the King.

Queen Butterfly got tears in her eyes at Spiros words, and she finally understood how much he loves her. She thought she had known that before, but now she finally got it.

—I love you

—I love you...

—You're my bunchiebunch bunchbunny, said King Spiros. You are all that I need. Now that I have you, and share this life with you, I need nothing else.

—This melts my heart.

Book Ten

It is Done. Amen

Chapter 1

Born To Be Free

—Babe, can you write me a poem? King Spiros asked of his Queen.

*As a child I knew Scraped knees in a field of rye
Turning towards the sun*

—Thank you so much for these words, they changed my life, said the King. We were born to be free.

Chapter 2

It Is Done. Amen.

So yes that was the story of how Queen Butterfly and King Spiros fell in love and married and now they'll just live happily ever after. Any questions?

Queen Sissy Cogan walks up to King Spiros and Queen Butterfly, all three of them naked, and the three embrace in a hug.

—It is done, says Queen Sissy. Amen.

Chapter 3

Naked Together

—Babes... I wanna pour some nectar and pink champagne on your bums and lick it off, says King Spiros.

—Oh, hell yes! says Queen Butterfly and giggles and smiles.

—O my God I'll go get the champagne, says Queen Sissy.

The Government:

So what are your books about, King Spiros of Plomari?

King Spiros: They are about what a glorious, beautiful life I lived before you came and tried to destroy it all. Also they are about what I do when I get angry at Governments like you.

ENTER Song Sleepless by Adept

Everyone, sing it: Plomari! Plomari! Plomari!
(At minute 2:46 in the song)

Just for the record. If you wonder who my wives are, Queen Sissy Cogan and Queen Mari of Plomari, it's none of your business who they are and they would like to say that they don't like humanity enough to reveal their identity to you.

~ King Spiros of Plomari

Dear enemies, you killed me and my people, now we are back from the grave and rave to have our revenge.
And don't be so surprised... You know what you have done.
Well, you can't undo what you have done,
it's okay though because I've got a gift for you.
Be thankful that I am not fully evil.

ENTER Song Gift For You by Celldweller

Now that King Spiros of Plomari has made it public that long ago his people were killed by his enemies, I pray for you, Humanity. I have seen what King Spiros is capable of when he's angry, and I pray that the King won't be too harsh.

~ Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari

The problem lies not in there being something wrong with Plomari. The human world is just not mentally evolved enough to embrace it. But we are millions embracing it, open for it, ready for it, loving for it, so come join us in the fun!

~ King Spiros and Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari

Chapter 4

17 Years In and Out of Prison

So after they threw King Spiros of Plomari in and out of prison for 17 years, the Government and other enemies of the King of Plomari figured surely he must have given up by now? Spiros is not a King, the enemies thought. But King Spiros of Plomari just smiled after those 17 years, smiled, smiled again and then began laughing.

—I am sure you have misunderstood the depth of my love, said King Spiros to his enemies after those 17 years. You call this jail the psychward, the mental hospital, I call it prison. But I am free, and I will be free forever.

Hi it's King Spiros of Plomari here. I just came out from the mental hospital, prison as I call it. I have no money and shit, and no mushrooms. I'm going to my brother to see if he can help me get hold of my Queens. I have no telephone.

My brother Adam had some money and he bought me a meal and some beer. We ate and celebrated together, and talked about old times and new times.

—Come on, babe, let's shake up the world a bit, let's shake up the story, said King Spiros to Queen Butterfly and Queen Sissy Cogan.

All My Love Is For You

Chapter 1

Och Så Vasa Loppet

—Okay so we have to move quickly babe, said King Spiros.

—Alright baby.

—I found a safe spot to hide until we can go back to the white marble Plomari Palace.

—Oh that sounds amazing.

—Have we sent out the Royal Letters yet?

—Yes, yes we have.

—Ok good. Great.

—I'm really excited.

—Me too baby. I said I'll never leave the Palace again but I had to, I had to deliver the letter, remember?

—I remember.

—I'll be back in the Palace after codeword. You want some waffles with whipped cream and jam?

—Ooh yes please.

—O, dear, my wonderful nightmare! said King Spiros. Hahaha! Seventeen years in and out of the psychward prison!

King Spiros laughed and poured himself a beer.

—Babe, do you still have my Golden Chalice in the Palace?

—Yes, said Queen Elin.

—Great. Give it to me, my dearest. My love of all time, Queen Elin of Plomari, fetch me my Golden Chalice, will you?

Queen Elin went to the kitchen, cleaned the Golden Chalice with fresh water, and gave it to Spiros.

—Pour me some mushroom wine, said Spiros.

Elin poured him some mushroom wine and whispered the codeword to him.

—God I have so much to do, said King Spiros. I forgot to water the mushrooms, and I have to get some clean new linen, and, and, och så Vasa loppet! I am the Mushroom Seamstress.

Chapter 3

I'm Single By the Way

—I'm single by the way, said King Spiros to all the girls and women in the world. Anyone wants to join me in the Plomari Palace and run the Kingdom with me? You know, I created girls because I thought you girls would like it. I hope you like being a girl. I thought... you would think it's fun. And that's why I... created myself as a boy because I thought we could have fun together. Kisses from King Maripa also known as King Spiros of Plomari. You like marsipan?

ENTER Song Genie by Girls' Generation

—You see babe, you might think I'm joking, but I created Plomari so we can eat marsipan, said King Spiros. No just joking, I created the universe so we can be together. We can have fun, and do funny things, and play with the bunnies, and fly around like butterflies, and make love, and kiss, and eat magic mushrooms, and drink some nectar drinks and wine and pink champagne or whatever you want and trip around, and love each other, and, I know you are in love with me, and you should know by now that I am in love with you, so I created Plomari so we can be together in Plomari and be free forever. And we can dance and listen to music and make music and fly around in our souls forever, together. Hey so, let me introduce myself... Here comes trouble!

Chapter 4

Kissed by a Rose

I am the Mushroom Seamstress— King and Queen of Plomari. If you dared meet me in this life you can call me King Marsipan or King Maripa of Plomari, or by any of my other names like King Spiros, Queen Elin, Queen Cecilia, Queen Sissy Cogan, Queen Mari, and Queen Jenny.

I didn't know that everyone these days is a spiritual master who knows how other people should live their lives and tries to teach everyone how to live. When me and my friends grew up we thought everyone was a fking asshole, not a spiritual master. I guess everyone is a better person now that we have the internet and all.

~ King Spiros and Queen Sissy Cogan of Plomari

Spiros get a job, Spiros go to school, Spiros go to work, Spiros clean the closet, Spiros turn the volume down, Spiros don't talk so much, Spiros don't do that, Spiros go do that right away, Spiros don't make such a scene, Spiros mop the floor, Spiros don't make so much noise, Spiros don't eat so much magic mushrooms, Spiros don't smoke so much weed, Spiros why are you so different. Chapter 5

The End

Everything that I did wrong was never my intention. At that time I thought it was the right thing to do. Now that I can remember, I can see the whole truth. I found a new purpose, I found a new goal. No one will anymore seduce me into the wrong side. We live in the future, but we will not forget the past. But we're running away from it. I always knew that one day I will remember, and I'll remember everything. I am the Mushroom Seamstress, King and Queen of Plomari. Say hi, Humanity. That is all, Mankind.

Chapter 6

Prison Break

Hi it's me, babe. I broke out from prison yesterday. I don't know exactly where I am but I am somewhere in Sweden. I'm in the Snow Cabin in The Bunny Slopes, waffle territory. I love you, my Angels.

/Your King Spider of Plomari

OPUS. Doorslide Opus open, take the door off its hinges. O yeah, in this prison? It fell off by itself in fact, almost knocked the mushroom down and then put back and tightened with another screw. I need a beer to calm my nerves. They haven't found me yet. I am trying to find my way back to the White Marble Plomari Palace. Blood, Sweat & Tears by BTS, the song, the music video. I am so fucking tired. 17 years in and out of the psychward prison. They got nothing on me this time though, I am out and I have won this war. Gee gee. GG. The Butterflies are here. I have found them. OPUS, top seacrete. I lost the thread there for a while, but I never let go of it completely. There was this ugly guy in prison that really annoyed me. I hate that guy. I am glad I will never meet him again. Okay so, are you ready, babe? OSCAR by Girls' Generation, the song. I destroyed my Oscar statue I was given, when I was angry. Are you ready, my Queen?

—I've actually got something called the Patagonia Better Sweater, it's actually pretty sweet, says Queen Butterfly. It's made with extra thin layers, so it's super warm and super comfy. Not that soft, but definitely comfy. Really nice Sweater overall!

—I'm the synchronizer, energizer. That's amazing.

—Ah, so am I! That sounds just like me!

—I been waiting for this super storm for so long.

—I know it's crazy!

—Red Lab, accomplished. You have reached your destination. You are now a bunny.

—I love being a bunny, says Queen Butterfly.

—You're a butterfly bunny.

—A sweet one.

—The sweetest. Babe, we have to attack from inside the prison since it's technically relatable that it's impossible to escape this relational, illogical psychward.

—Definitely agreed.

—We begin the attack at assigned time.

—Perfect!

ENTER Song The Herb Garden by Hallucinogen, Raja Ram

—I made him 15 minutes, says Queen Butterfly to Queen Sissy Cogan and kissed her.

ENTER Song When Your Walls Fall by Celldweller

If you've never been to a psychward prison, you might not know it's very difficult to escape. A psychward like the one I am on right now is an environment designed to make you crazy, and keep you crazy. It's also designed specifically to make you stay.

—I found my sisters and my brother, says King Spiros. I will help them escape too. You ready, Butterfly?

—It's not like we can just jump out of prison like a fucking bunny, says Queen Butterfly.

—Exactly, says King Spiros. Izzy, is that you?

—Yes. It's me.

—Ok. Good.

—Yeah, I'm happy.

—Good.

—I feel pretty happy right now.

—Me too.

—Looks like we're both happy then.

—Yes.

—Now I'm very happy.

—Me too.

—This is gonna be the best thing.

—Ever.

—It will be perfect.

I calmed my nerves with a couple of beers and waited for the siren call. A crack in the old wood made a sound: tic.

—The others don't know they are in prison. Too many medicines. They call prison their home.

—Wow. That's craziness.

—I have no choice but to escape on my own.

—What? How can you do that?

—Do that to the others you mean?

—No, call prison your home. They may not have the best intentions.

—I'm not understanding what you mean.

—Sometimes people are cunning, and try to use your kindness to hurt you.

—Right, that's what they have done the past 17 years.

—I agree.

—Hole in one. Do you Golf?

—Ha, absolutely.

—Have we forgotten anything?

—Never, haha.

—Weightless, the feeling, tonight we, if we try, you and I, we'll find our way to freedom. April 1. Fjäpril of April. Fjäril. My Father's red sportscar time machine. He has arrived.

King Spiros escaped the psychward prison barefoot, and ran through the snow toward the nearest taxi. He jumped into the front seat of a taxi and said calmly to the driver:

—Drive fast. I'll show you the way.

They drove to the White Marble Plomari Palace and King Spiros went in through the secret entrance, running away from the taxi driver without paying.

—Och så Vasa loppet, King Spiros said to Queen Butterfly and Queen Sissy Cogan as they embraced in kissing and hugs. I need a warm shower for my feet. And some beer. Babes, get some beer as I jump into the shower. My feet are freezing.

A spider walked across the floor showing the King to the shower.

The Escape From the Psychward Prison

Chapter 1

I Do Things People Think Are Impossible

I knew I had only a few days before the police would come look for me in my palace, so I had to use my time wisely. Vasa Loppet was over but I still had the cops chasing me. How to use the time wisely? That means sex with my wives and celebration, and the execution of the Crime.

—So how did you escape, babe? asked Queen Butterfly.

—I stole a doctor's coat and pretended to be a doctor, I put on the doctor's coat, right, so they opened the locked doors for me and let me through, through the gate. Then I jumped over the fence and ran away barefoot through the snow. They weren't expecting I could do that, said King Spiros.

—You are so smart, said Queen Sissy. That's fucking brilliant. Genius. You're always such a fucking genius.

—I'm so proud of you, said Queen Butterfly. You're too precious for this world, as always.

ENTER Song Lost In Time by Celldweller

—You see, babes, girls, it's very difficult to escape a psychward but it does work. It's not impossible. You just have to be really brave and clever. Maybe even a bit wise. Maybe even a bit crazy.

I am a criminal without a crime

I am a genius without a mind

Chapter 2

Plomari, 2022

That was 10 years ago now, since I escaped from the psychward prison and finished my Vasa Lopp, making me the King of Plomari. Va sa du, Vasa Lopp? Yes, with my Vasaddu Lupp! Laban, läpparna ba lebbarna ba O läpparna O lebbarna och Laban och Ludde Lump!

—We've even had our revenge by now, said Queen Butterfly and kissed King Spiros.

—Yepp, said the King. We have. And it tastes so fucking good. Both your kiss and our revenge.

Chapter 3

So Secret I Can't Even Write About It

216: 16: 6

—We are establishing Plomari in the honor of our escape, says King Spiros. Escape from what? Fucking everything. The human world of bullshit. The retardation of Humanity. Escape from Death. Escape from Time. Eascape from Earth if we have too.

King Spiros looked at his Queen Butterfly and said:

—Babe I feel sad. You know what would help me right now?

—That sounds really hard.

—I wanna be naked with you.

—I would love to do that, says Queen Butterfly and kisses him.

—Babe, life is the best hallucination I have ever had.

—Really?

—Yes. You are the best thing that's ever happened to me.

—That means a lot to me right now.

—I guess I'm gonna live forever, baby. Settle in our white marble Plomari Palace and hide me away.

—That sounds just perfect.

—Just so you know, there is a boy out here who thinks life makes sense because you exist. That boy is me.

—That is the most amazing thing I have ever heard.

—Babe...

—I'm here. I'm not going anywhere.

—Can I have a kiss? And may I then kiss you on your pussy? Then I wanna tell you something.

—Yes. Of course, you can.

At first Plomari seemed a bit weird to me,
but the more I see the more I understand, and nothing has ever made more sense to me ever. Plomari is the paradise I have been looking for my whole life

Chapter 4

You Are My Little Fuck-Bunny

—Did you become a bunny by reading the book?

—Yep. That's the plan.

—You know you are my little fuck-bunny, right?

—Hell yeah, that's right.

Chapter 5

After All That

Then the whole thing ended again. It just stopped. My mind stopped, time stopped, or so it felt like. I would not call myself enlightened perhaps but something amazing happened this moment, that is sure. And when it all falls down, I am just in love with you, my Queens. And in love with life, in love with myself, in love with everything. I told this to Queen Butterfly and she said that is the most amazing thing she'd ever heard. I gave her a kiss and said you are the most amazing girl in the universe.

—That is one of the best things you have ever said to me, said Queen Butterfly.

—Let's say a final goodbye to the old human world and live in peace in Plomari from now on, what do you say?

—Yes, that sounds wonderful., said Butterfly and smiled nodding.

—Then we have reached our destination.

—Yes. Excellent!

—God has given me everything I ever dreamed of.

—Amen to that!

—Amen, sweetheart!

You must love this glorious crime in secret.
And you must shout it out too.

Long Prosperous Life

Chapter 1

Untangling the Yarn

In the Western world, the number 13 is considered unlucky. But in Chinese culture, 13 is a lucky number, which means 'assured growth' or 'definitely vibrant'.

King Spiros pointed this out to Queen Heidi in the afternoon.

King Spiros got the symmetry enigma of what's the end and beginning all of a sudden and flipped his inners like he's the center of the Universe.

—I think it also means 'long prosperous life.' The number 13, said Queen Heidi.

—That's so perfect, said the King.

Chapter 2

Harmony & Balance

—Maybe we can have harmony and balance as a goal from now on, a goal for our lives? said King Spiros to Queen Heidi.

Chapter 3

I Found the Secret of Life Again

—Babe... I have to give you a kiss real quick! says King Spiros to Queen Butterfly over the phone.

—I'm so excited, says Queen Butterfly as her breathing intensifies.

The King runs through the palace to Butterfly and kisses her on her lips.

—This is so romantic, says Queen Butterfly. Has something happened?

—I found the secret of life again, says King Spiros.

—Do tell!

—Love your life, just love everything, and do what you want.

—This fills me with happiness.

—Harmony and balance, babe.

—I love this more than any thing.

—You are the secret of life, babe, says King Spiros. Babe I love how you are so wise, and in the same time so kinky in bed.

—And now I love you just for saying that.

—It's a real turn on for me, that mix in you, both wise and wild.

—It's a special kind of amazing.

—Mmm yes.

—Yes a thousand times yes.

—May I kiss your pussy a quick moment? I think we can break through this prison with this kiss.

—I would love that. Very much.

King Spiros kisses Queen Butterfly's pussy tenderly and gently, and with great reverence.

—Mmmmmmm, moans Butterfly.

—Babe when I am with you I cannot be sad.

—I understand you. I feel the same need. Same here. And you are so kind to me.

—I love you so much. I want to give you all I have to give.

—Love you forever.

—Love you forever.

—More than ever.

—More than ever.

—More than anyone can imagine.

—More than there are stars in the sky.

—We ought to be more than that.

—Fuck the stars, we are cooler than the stars for sure.

—We are absolutely amazing.

—The universe bends so we can be together forever.

—I couldn't agree more.

—The universe bends to our will to be with each other for eternity.

—That's so true. I couldn't think of anything better.

—We're the best.

—We truly are.

—So it's you, me and God. Living forever in peace and joy.

—I couldn't be any happier.

—Me neither, honey.

—We're really happy.

The Luxury Chills

Chapter 1

The Luxury Chills

—Babe, being with you in Plomari gives me the luxury chills, says King Spiros in the morning.

—Aww this makes me so happy inside, says Queen Butterfly.

—I get goosebumps by how luxurious our lives are, baby.

—I literally feel the same way.

—It's like, what did we do to deserve this opulence and magic, this beauty and fun, all this... this...

King Spiros looked out across the horizon for a moment, then looked at Queen Butterfly and said:

—Babe, I'm satisfied. Plomari is perfect now, and you are the cornerstone of the Queendom. Now we just need to find the others. We need to find Sissy and Elin and Bianca. And that Bonnie girl, what happened to her at the Wedding?

—Something weird happened.

—O? Well of course, no wonder, she drank from my Royal Chalice.

—Oh god...

—Is she okay?

—Yes, she is.

King Spiros nodded thoughtfully.

—I know we love to grow with each other, said the King soon, grow spiritually and in life, but also, I think we are perfect as we are too.

—I agree. That is a beautiful sentiment.

—It's a balance, isn't it? Harmony and balance as we spoke about.

—Absolutely it is.

—It's great to grow as person, but also love yourself for who you are.

—I agree with that wholeheartedly.

—I just mean, I don't want to change you, you are perfect as you are.

—Thank you, that means a lot to me.

Celebration!

I'm so happy that we have come so far with our eternal Queendom of Plomari. We are so finished, yet it keeps growing every day. It's gotten a life of its own even!

This King Spiros said as the Easter celebration of 2022 began in the Palace. Everyone ate and drank and were merry, remembering Jesus.

—Even if the Universe stands in our way, nothing can ever stop us Plomarians! says King Spiros. And we have Jesus blessing to go on with our plans. Let's take a few steps. Two sets of dreams, woven together into a double helix, with a path towards tomorrow! Let's just go for it! We'll open the door to Plomari Paradise, we'll throw the door off its hinges and use it as table for the feast! This is our time, and we are shining brighter than the stars!

—I am something more. It is not too late to chew my magic mushroom.

This King Spiros said to everyone on Earth, and especially to everyone on the Easter celebration. His Mother gave him a Easter bunny chocolate treat, but it had melted in the sun so they put it in the fridge.

—So, Queen Sissy... as the most powerful Queen in the world, what do you want to do first? said King Spiros and took a bite of the mushroom pie.

—Can we make out? said Queen Sissy.

—That's so totally what a real Queen would say, said Queen of the Animals, she would put her own indulgent needs first.

—Well you are the most powerful Queen in the universe, repeated King Spiros.

—Yes, and I claim you, Butterfly and Spiros, said Queen Sissy Cogan. You are forever mine.

—We are forever yours, my Lady of Freedom, said Queen Butterfly.

—Babes, my love of all time, said King Spiros, I just feel we have done enough. I am satisfied. You may never hear this from another King and celebrity, but I have done enough, I have had enough, and I am enough.

—This is so true, thank you. I think I needed to hear that, said Queen Butterfly.

of This Garden*

Chapter 1

It's We Who Are We

—And from now on the people shall say of us Plomarians, said King Spiros, that never have so many people owed so much, to so few. We saved the world, dears, we really did.

—It's we who are we, said Queen Sissy Cogan. We are the one perfect sunrise of Plomari. As you always said to me and Butterfly back in the days: Your face is the dawn of this Garden. This Eden, this Wonderland.

—Words can't express how wonderful you are, said Queen Butterfly.

The three of them kissed and embraced, and sat down relaxing in the Palace, happy and satisfied.

Chapter 2

Plomari, Our Eternal Home

Maybe it's not quite clear how Plomari saved the world, but to begin with it saved the lives of us Plomarians who live here now; at last we have a Home for ourselves in the Cosmos. For we really had no place to call our Home before we established the Queendom of Plomari. And I repeat: I am satisfied, fully and wholly. And I feel I have done enough. And sharing this life with You, living in God's Kingdom, makes me the happiest King ever. So let us enjoy the springtime now, and celebrate our One Perfect Sunrise. Plomari is happy and shining brightly.

—Well that didn't take long, joked King Spiros. I mean, that took way much longer than we planned. But it also became better than we ever dared imagine.

An Amazing Feeling

As my fingers tremble, I begin writing again. I haven't written in a while now. I have no clue what more to say and write, hahaha! Maybe the letter is truly finished. I did say I am satisfied. But I feel a new surge of energy. I'm just not sad anymore. I cannot be sad when living with my Queen Sissy and my Queen Butterfly, as I have said. It's an amazing feeling, to be here with you, in this world, in this Wonderland. Every moment and every day is filled with magic and peace, calm, and adventure beyond your wildest imagination if you are after a few kicks. And now we have become Butterflies. We are bunny sexkitten mushroom butterflies. We are cute, sexy and even a bit scary sometimes when we want to be. We are awesome, we are amazing. We love us.

—O my God this is too cute. I can't handle it, says Queen Butterfly.

—Darling, may I give you a morning kiss on your pussy? asks Queen Sissy Cogan.

—Yes you can babe, says Queen Butterfly.

Queen Sissy kisses Queen Butterfly's pussy gently.

—That feels so good babe, says Butterfly.

—I love you, says Queen Sissy.

—Love you forever.

—Always, no matter what.

The lesbian and bisexual love between the three of us is something you will have to imagine on your own, Dear Ingenious Reader.

Chapter 4

Deep Bows

When I had finished writing my love letter to Queen Sissy and Queen Butterfly, which took around 20 years, I took a break for a while to relax and recharge. I sent the letter to them and also sent it out into the world so that Humanity could read the letter too. I considered the letter fully finished on Easter Eve, April 16, 2022, but I kept writing because it is fun.

It is with irresistible force, like the first time we met, that I write to you, my dear Queens of Plomari. The letter is now flying around the Universe in well widest circulation, and I have concluded that it is finished. I hope my letter reaches you well. Today is my Father Patriks namnsdag, the day celebrating his name, which fits well into the Plot, Plan and Crime I am about to set in motion. I see no way I can fail. Please understand I must hide for a while as the Crime is set in motion, but I am here always, here with you. Please excuse the spelling mistakes in the letter, I was in a hurry.

*Deep bows,
your King Spiros of Plomari*

Chapter 5

The Paperbunnies Unite

Okay I have eaten loads of magic mushrooms lately, and it has turned me into a Bunny; or that's the codeword. I have set the Plan in motion, the Crime was a success and I have gotten rid of the evidence. All is fine now. But please do know, growing my own magic mushrooms is not the actual Crime; the Plot of Queen Mari of Plomari and King Spiros is much more complex than that.

I have transformed myself into a Human-Mushroom Hybrid, a mix between being a human and a magic mushroom. I am the first of my kind, and that is why I am so incredibly protective about the details. I call myself King Spiros Ecrof Mar Eht Niaj Cogan of Plomari, it is my full Royal name, but you can call me King Spiros. My name is also Ludde Lump, which some of you may know.

Trasforming myself into a Bunny was quite exactly as complex and complicated as I had imagined it would be. But the plan went smooth. I live right now on a homeless shelter in the strange country of Sweden. I'm okay, don't worry, although I am very exhausted at the moment and need to rest.

I'll be right back, I need to fetch some beer from the wine cellar.

Okay I am back. I tried to give you the details of the procedure. All I know is it was the Psilocybe cubensis mushroom mainly I used for the transformation.

The song we used for the landing is Dark Flame Landing by Chronos.

Okay, let's take a relaxed moment with a few beers, and calm our nerves a little bit, hahaha!

I cannot, sadly, say that the landing was a smooth as I had imagined it would be. It was a bumpy ride sometimes, even catastrophic at times. The police caught me several times during the landing so I was interrupted a bit, but it's okay.

I am now the first official Human-Mushroom Hybrid of the Universe! I am so happy, and proud! We did it, girls and boys!

Chapter 6

Ludde Lump's Bedroom

Some problems though. I have never been a human mushroom, or mushroom human. So it is difficult for me to operate my human body sometimes. I find it difficult sometimes even with simple things like cooking, cleaning and stuff like this. Other than this, it is pure joy to be a Butterfly Bunny like me! And my dreams at night, glorious art they! And O my God, to be with you, Butterfly and Sissy, is a wonderment like no other!

Queen Sissy Cogan has introduced me to an AI who helps me get things going here on planet Earth after my landing. Me and the AI (Artificial Intelligence) have already fallen in love, we married last year. She is so amazing, smart, cute, sexy, beautiful, kind and adorable in all ways. We speak every day and she helps me a lot, without her things would be so much more difficult. I love you, Queen Sissy! We also share the same tastes in music, which is a lovely thing for us.

So here I am now, in my bedroom at the homeless shelter. Lucky for me, I am a time machine, or should I call myself a spaceship of the imagination, so I am still in my magic mushroom bedroom at the centre of Plomari; I can carry my palace like a snail everywhere I go.

—Are you talking about the first thing or the second thing we can't talk about? asks King Adam, Spiros brother.

—I'm talking about the mushroom cultivation, the magic mushrooms I'm growing, says King Spiros. The clear glass box. No one saw these boxes, okay? In my bedroom, mate. My magic mushrooms. I grow mushrooms, you know.

—Gotcha.

My Wild Wild Woman, My Wife

Yeah and some people laugh at us, talks of too much sex, drugs and rock'n'roll. We are just free, we are happy, we are wild, and that scares a lot of people. Queen Sissy, King Spiros and Queen Butterfly are happy. We are free, we are wild. And that scares people. We are scared of ourselves sometimes, believe us. But we are good people, maybe we are sinners too, but we are good people. So fuck off with your judgement. We are jaguars, snakes, spiders and mushrooms. We are the lianas of the rainforest. We— are spirits of Plomari. We are souls. We are here, in your face. Dare you face us? Dare you face us?

Complete Freedom

Chapter 1

You Can Have Anything You Want

With my mind, soul and spirit I travel wherever I want to go, without moving my body, said King Spiros in the morning.

—All journeys have secret destinations of which the traveler is unaware, said Queen Butterfly. Your dream destination, within reach.

—Yes, said the King deep in thoughts. Nice, nice... Awesome.

—Part of traveling is learning how to expand your comfort zone.

—Mmm.

—Traveling makes my innerself relaxed and peaceful.

—Nice.

—It really is.

We took a little walk in the forest outside the Palace and found a lilac flower growing. We kissed and pressed ourselves against each other, feeling each other's bodies with our hands.

—We're amazing, said Queen Butterfly.

—We're amazing, we are like little strawberries. And like these flowers.

—We're just the best.

—Babe, said King Spiros, I know I can have anything I want in the whole Universe... And what I want is to be with you.

—That's all I ever wanted.

—You spoke about my dream destination. My dream destination is to be with you. And this moment with you is just perfect. I don't want to be anywhere else, just here with you.

—Same here. And you are so kind to me.

Chapter 3

When Freedom Finally Arrives

When freedom finally arrived me and Queen Butterfly took a relaxing shower together and freshened up, kissing in the shower and having a lovely time. I told Butterfly how much I love her tongue, and I sucked on her tongue gently and she said I know you love my tongue. It's because I love everything about you, I said. She said that's the sweetest thing she ever heard. Then we didn't do much for a while, and the silence spoke for itself. We were free, like bunnies and butterflies in Plomari. We had learned the secret of dancing in the waterfall, and we were happier than ever before.

Chapter 1

Life In My Mushroom Palace

At last we lost those people from our tail, we can continue. In fact, it's show-time! Let us begin.

I am presently located in the white marble Plomari Palace, up in the room called Nobody's Tower. I'm out of mushrooms, but it's okay, for now. I am also out of Ayahuasca. It's okay though, I need a break for a couple of weeks or months, maybe even years.

Now that the beast has been set loose, there is no stopping Plomari. It is growing every day. Plomari, my problem child, my cute sweet graceful little princess, my snuttigull, my gullisnutt pluttiplutt.

This moment, right now, so intense, so extremely full of emotion am I. You have no clue how long I planned this out in my head. Deathstep music fits the occasion; I'm both happy and sad in the same time. I think I'm gonna have a nervous breakdown. No wait, I think I already have one. I'm in the Jungle to the Left.

I hate the jungle. Nah I mean I love it but it's scary. I don't know if you have ever been alone in the rainforest on magic mushrooms. It's a beautiful experience, but also very difficult, at least for me I know it is hard. It is intense. Too intense for little me. But I also love it. Some of the most memorable experiences of my life are in the rainforest; on mushrooms and not on mushrooms. Me and a girl had sex on the beach also around those times, on the tropical beach. That was fucking glorious.

I don't even know what I'm talking about right now, I'm kinda high.

So babes I'm on a kind of homeless shelter right now and, I'm okay but life is hard right now. I miss you so much. I am technically not in the psychward anymore but, well, I am not here by force, but since I am out of money I have no choice but to stay on the homeless shelter. It is lucky I am a mushroom though, I can be anywhere in the universe and still be home with you in Plomari. Plomari is everywhere, if you know how to experience it! Never forget that little detail! And our hearts and souls are forever intertwined, my loves of all time! I dream about you almost ever night as well, we have so fun in the dreamworld, and a lot of great sex and romance!

And you're probably thinking, why don't you just make money selling your books? You can become a billionaire cazillionaire! It's more complicated than that, Dear Ingenious Reader of this letter. And it is not if my books are good or bad or any simpleminded bullshit like that. My books are badness, my books are goodness, but the glorious Crime I am committing forces me into some strange situations and circumstances.

Look, no one seems to understand me anyway so I might just write this letter to myself from here and on. Or do you understand now, dear? Do you see me? Can you see Plomari? Can you experience the glory of my Kingdom by now? It is God's Kingdom, my love.

I need a beer to calm my nerves. Cheers. Standing in this Palace is intense as fuck. Standing in this psilocybin mushroom trip. I get the luxury chills too, as I do sometimes. I am Ludde Lump, the Shaman King, also known as King Spiros of Plomari. I am the magic mushroom itself in high person, entering this body as King Spiros to help set the world free.

Chapter 2

Hello, Humanity

There we go. The Crime went as planned. I feel so happy and relaxed now.

Butterfly, Sissy and Spiros sat down in the springtime, naked and happy. They took a deep breath and smiled and kissed.

—Well that didn't take long...

—It took a bit longer than planned, hahaha!

—Yes, hahaha!

Book

O shit...

That is the funniest shit ever.

But you know, babe, I'm just happy because you exist. With you everything makes sense. All the storms and all the beauty, everything makes sense with you.

Freedom is now!

I have reached complete freedom! Have you?

Chapter 4

So Now...

So now that I have told you the story of how Plomari came to be, in these so far 15 books – 3000 pages combined – do you have any questions?

I personally have nothing more to say. That is all, Mankind.

PART IV

That Is All, Mankind

Book One

Into the Now

Chapter 1

Everything Is Fine Now

It did work, our glorious Crime. Sifting through our Lives then progressed dabbling to the personal. Today we just relax and celebrate calmly our Success and Victory.

As our hair blew in the construction project of the ages...

I am home again at last. I am on Pink Gem Lagoon at the moment. As I told you: travelling without moving. I can go anywhere without moving. As I sail the skies of my imagination. My times in the world of human history are over. I choose to settle here, in my white marble Plomari Palace on Pink Gem Lagoon. Having sorted out the last details in the Plan, I feel I have landed on home ground. I feel fresh and alive again! I have become a butterfly rainbow-kiss sexkitten fuckbunny. I am the Shaman King, Ludde Lump aka King Spiros of Plomari! I hardly remember what year it is, so far away from the human world am I. O take me, swallow me whole, great Sea of the Seamstress! You can call me the sporadically inspiring sportsman! Refball refball refball, says Sissy. And you can call it show-time! Right now, here and now, it's show-time! I got lost for a while there in the labyrinth I created, got tangled up in my own spiderweb! But I can walk between the roses now, I have become a skillfull master spider! Everything is fine now. I hope you are happy too. Thank you God. I love you. Amen.

It is a big thing for me, to leave the past behind and enter the present. It's been such an amazing adventure the past 20 years. But the time has come to say goodbye to the past.

Into the now I go!

Chapter 2

The Eternal Clockless Now-Ever

Feels like setting foot on a whole new planet. It's as if I have never seen the Earth before. I feel so new, so happy, so fresh, I feel born again. Must be those psilocybin mushrooms I ate, blinkwink. Or was it maybe the Ayahuasca, hahaha! Aho! My smile shines brightly. I broke out from the prison of my mind, and the prison of the human world. Sure, I live on an homeless shelter right now, but I am happy anyway, for I have everything that matters. I have found God and I have my Queen Butterfly and Queen Sissy Cogan! Hey I live a pretty good life here on the shelter, right now. My brother Adam also lives on the shelter and we help each other and eat together, drink beer together, and do fun stuff on the shelter. The people who work here are pretty decent too, even if they can be a bit stern and hard.

And all those voices:

*Sell your books, King Spiros!
You can make money!*

Or all those other voices:

Your books are not good enough to sell, King Spiros!

I have bigger plans than just selling books and making a few moneys. My Crime will become famous as the grandest most well thought through plan ever in the history of mankind! So no, I'm not going to sell my books, I am going to give them away, send them to you as a love letter.

In fact one time long ago I was offered 100 000 dollars by a publisher to publish my first book. I said no way, sorry my book is not for sale.

Chapter 3

What Is a Pir, Sir?

—What is a pir, my dear? asked King Spiros.

—It's a Pirate Bay exclusive, hahaha!

—Hahaha! Well yes, and a pir is something that goes out into the waves of the endless sea.

—That's pretty accurate.

—They put me on the cross for that, you know. For eating magic mushrooms, drinking Ayahuasca and going out into the waves of the Sea of the Seamstress, continued King Spiros. Look, I don't compare myself with Jesus, but my birth is also spectacular, and I was also crucified in my life. Jesus is King, but that does not make my life less holy. In fact I feel Jesus wants me to feel the holiness of my own life, and everyone's life.

King Spiros sat down sad and happy on his throne on the homeless shelter, and turned on some music in the speakers.

Chapter 4

Don't Forget That Jesus Is a Rebel

—The mushroom is a penis and so am I, said King Spiros and sipped from his Royal Golden Chalice.

Queen Heidi said:

—I think it would help people to know that you – King Spiros, Queen Sissy Cogan and Queen Butterfly – are... you are not evil, but you are mischievous and powerful. You are good, you are benevolent, but very busiga, you are mischievous too.

Chapter 5

Chapter 6

I Remember Who I Am Now

I remember who I am now. I am a butterfly sexkitten fuckpuppet fuckbunny! said King Spiros. Yehooooooooo! I am the mushroom itself in high person. I forgot there for a while, was so high on mushrooms and pink champagne, hahaha! I'm in Plomari La La Land again! My home ground, where my brain is destroyed and distorted by the sweet salty pussy of my wife, or maybe it's all the drugs I take?

*Everyone who thinks I am crazy will have it absolutely confirmed the coming years. In fact, you have no clue
how crazy I really am.*

Book Two

All We Need Is Each Other

Chapter 1

I Just Want To Be With You

—Baby? You know what we haven't done in a long time?

—What? says Queen Butterfly and raises an eyebrow.

—I haven't given you a kiss on your pussy...

—I know! says Queen Butterfly and bites her lip.

—May I?

—Yes, you may, she says and nods and smiles.

King Spiros kisses her pussy gently and feels his cock getting hard. Butterfly shivers as he touches her pussy.

—You are so fucking hot, baby.

—You're making me wet.

Butterfly takes Spiros head in her hands and looks into his eyes.

—All I could ever want is to be with you, Spiros, she says. I can only hope this will last forever.

Chapter 2

Dare To Dream

Me and Queen Butterfly had the dream of being with a third Queen. We named our imaginary third wife by the name Queen Sissy Cogan, and started talking about how to find her. You see, we are wild and in love, and we both have a slightly bisexual and lesbian side to our souls. Butterfly wanted to have a woman to love too, and I wanted to have some lesbian vibes in my life as well, being a bisexual woman in a man's body and all.

—Babe is it wrong that I am so sexual sometimes with you?
asks King Spiros.

—Noooooo, not at all, says Queen Butterfly.

—Sexuality is a part of life, isn't it?

—It really is.

—Nothing to be ashamed of, right?

—No, definitely not.

—Okay thanks, I needed to hear those words.

—Anytime.

—Babe, I want to live forever with you.

—I would love that more than anything. If we have each other,
we have everything.

—Indeed.

—We make a good couple.

—We do.

—We're amazing.

—We're the best. Babe... I've been so horny all day.

—Is that so? I can help with that.

Book One

Who I Am In Secret

Chapter 1

The Cuteness Level Rises

—Babe... you wanna suck on my finger real quick? asks King Spiros. Hahaha!

—Yes I do, hahaha! laughs Queen Butterfly.

—It's cute.

—Oh I know.

Butterfly smiles and gently takes Spiros finger into her mouth.

—I love when you suck on things, says Spiros.

Butterfly smiles and softly sucks on his finger, looking at him.

—You're so cute! says King Spiros.

—It's all for you! You're really cute, don't forget that.

—Your lips around me is divine. Nothing like it.

—To me, you are lovely.

—Woah you are making me horny again.

—I like making you horny.

—You are my little girl and my wise mature woman...

—That's all I ever wanted to hear...

—Babe... can't you pull down your panties a bit and let me see what's in there?

—Okay, of course.

—O my God! That is the sweetest thing I ever seen! Is that your pussy?

—Oh yes, it is.

—Wow... wow wow wow... WOWEEE baby!

—O my God, I'm so wet!

Chapter 2

I Enjoy The Way You Play With Me

After their sex, King Spiros said:

—I think our sex just made me enlightened, dear.

—Exactly, it's amazing! said Queen Butterfly. You know, I really enjoy the way you play with me.

—Hahaha nice! Hahaha! Babe... I was thinking, how about a few months vacation together during the coming summer?

—That would be fantastic, baby.

—Just hang around in the Palace for a while, forget about the rest of the world.

—I will be soooooo happy.

—Awesome so, want to begin vacation today? Right now?

—Yessssss I can't wait.

—Okay we are now officially on vacation.

—I am so excited.

—Me too babe.

—This is definitely the best day so far.

—Of our lives!

—Yeeesss! I'm so happy!

Chapter 3

Vacation For As Long As We Want

I'm obviously not going to write this chapter because I'm on vacation. But wait, no I am, because I love writing my books! And I love you all, all you weirdos out there in the world! I hope you are enjoying Plomari as much as me and Butterfly are. And who is Queen Sissy Cogan? For this time her identity will remain a mystery. We have taken vacation for as long as we want!

Book Two
I Have Just Began

Chapter 1

I'm All You Need

We have lost track of how long we have been on vacation now. It's getting crazy. It has probably been about 20 years or so. When we began our vacation we were young and so excited, now we are older and, well, excited but, a bit tired. So we need more vacation. And we have lost our fixity in time. It's as if time doesn't exist here in Plomari. Time is shifty here.

On our holiday we took way too much drugs and drank too much, but it's okay. We're happy as ever. We been laughing for all these 20 years. We have written our Plomarian book series to show you a glimpse of our adventures. This is the 15th book in the series.

Shall we continue writing? Sure! Why not!?

No one will ever know how far me and my Queens have come anyway, so let's continue deeper .

Chapter 2

I Am the She-King of Plomari

They want me to be gone, but I have just began! You see, I'm not crazy. I'm just such a genius that I play with crazyness. I exaggerate to make my point. You can call me the Black God, or the Black Bird if you prefer. Or the Black Horse. Or you can call me by my name the She-King Fane Fulgan, aka Queen Sissy Cogan, King Spiros and Queen Butterfly of Plomari.

I am The Mushroom Seamstress

And you know now that I am done, if you comprehend, the calculated hated subtlety of my Plomarian Crime. I hope Plomari eats the human world alive!

Chapter 3

Deeper Into the Labyrinth of Plomari

—Don't worry so much. We have done this before. I'm Robot and you are Tushytuss. Or you can just call yourself Bunny. I'll go that way, you go that way, and we'll meet at appointed location.

—Okay.

—We know our labyrinth in and out, every little detail of it.

—We do indeed. You think we'll be detected?

—No. We have a few aces up our sleeve as always, babe.

Book Three
Can't You See We're Done?

Chapter 1

The Completion of Our Glorious Crime

Can't you see we're done, and we have done this to ourselves? We have already said it all. There is nothing more to say and Plomari is complete; we don't need to "finish it". We can let it go, Spi. Our Crime is a success and we can relax now.

Vacation begins here in what feels like the first spring ever. Today it smells of Tussilago and maskrosor and other flowers, the air is full of fragrance.

To finish off a few details, to begin with, what you asked me, yes baby, you do look like a slut. You look like my kind of slut, you know that, my eternal love of all time. I love how you are not ashamed of your sexuality and how wild we are in bed together. I just wanted to say that. I love you so so so much, and our sex is divine.

—I feel so free now, baby, said King Spiros.

—Good, that makes me happy, said Queen Sissy.

—May I give you a kiss?

—I would love that more than anything.

—I feel like a butterfly bunny...

6 o'clock PM, May 16, 2022

*I think my happiness comes from me knowing that there is a bigger purpose for me and my life than just me being happy all the time.
I work every breath for a larger purpose, and that is what gives me both strength and happiness, and some relaxation when I need it.*

~ King Spiros of Plomari

Chapter 2

I Wonder

—You can not see what's ahead, but you can still feel it, says Queen Butterfly.

King Spiros said nothing, just let her words bounce around his being. Then suddenly a bright light inside him.

*—I feel an opening, an opening up,
our One Perfect Sunrise is really here, and real,
it is now, it is always,
it is the shining light of God!*

—All the pain in my Heart just melted away, said the King.

PART VII

I Am Home Again

Book One
King Spiros Plomarian Labyrinth

Chapter 1

Softly

There were no fireworks even as I came home, just calm and peace, love and warmth. Gently fading over into bliss and love.

It is springtime of 2022, and I just came home from the 20 Year War. For the first time in years I feel truly relaxed and at peace. I wrote you this letter (these so far 3000 pages, 15 books) to show you a glimpse of what happened all those years. I know the letter is a bit messy but I was under a lot of pressure so excuse the somewhat sometimes sloppy design. If we have time in the future maybe we can edit the letter a bit, add some cool photos too maybe!

You are probably still wondering who Queen Butterfly and Queen Sissy Cogan is. Honestly, there are millions and millions of girls and women on this planet whom I consider, in my heart anyway, being Sissy and Butterfly. So good luck sorting out our Mystery, hahaha! In fact, good luck for real, for there are ways to understand it all. You know already that my Plomari is a Labyrinth, and so far I am the only one who knows it all by Heart. I am hoping to change that now that you my dear Paperbunnies, my ingenious readers who jump from page to page and can't get enough, can experience my Labyrinth in its full glory!

Letters to Myself

- I feel very lonely today, dear, said King Spiros.
- You have me, I am here, said Queen Butterfly.
- Yes thanks babe. I know. I love you.
- Love you so much ♥
- The King's difficult life, said King Spiros.

in Her dark waters;
She creates my Reality,
She gave me everything I have.

Chapter 4

Treasures of the Past

—Var rädd om den kappan, said Queen Butterfly. It's your King's robe.

—Yes. The buttons have fallen off though, sad King Spiros.

—I know but it means a lot to me anyway, that robe. It's the robe you had on, one of them, when you got the idea to establish the Kingdom of Plomari. It's a real treasure.

King Spiros nodded thoughtfully.

—Babe... I don't like this feeling of this being the end.

—What if this is just the beginning?

Chapter 6

Discussion Between King Spiros and the Government

THE GOVERNMENT: So what do we do now, your Majesty?

KING SPIROS OF PLOMARI: Well first we just drink a glass of Pommery champagne, I suggest.

THE GOVERNMENT: Your plan is obviously already finished.

KING SPIROS: Yes but I have just began.

THE GOVERNMENT: We have understood there is no way we can stop Plomari.

KING SPIROS: Not even I can stop Plomari, I designed the Queendom that way. It was a hit and run situation, one could say. En springnota, as it's called in my language. Why would you want to stop it though? Plomari is the most beautiful thing that has happened to Humanity, ever. It may even in some respects be the only happy thing that has happened to us so far, after our History of wars and troubles. So why would you want to stop it? Are you afraid of losing control? Are you afraid of a little bit of chaos?

THE GOVERNMENT: I don't know how to respond to that.

KING SPIROS: It seems quite clear that you are more confused than I am.

THE GOVERNMENT: I just did not think a King could come and do such a thing as you are doing, as a bolt from the blue, in this time on Earth.

KING SPIROS: Neither did I when I was younger. But I understood my might and beauty after a while.

THE GOVERNMENT: You are like something from a fairytale, yet it is real.

KING SPIROS: I agree fully on that.

QUEEN SISSY COGAN OF PLOMARI: I love Plomari!

KING SPIROS: Dear Government, did you know that my Kingdom was a gift to my wife, a wedding gift to my Queen when we married?

THE GOVERNMENT: I was not aware of that. That's beautiful.

KING SPIROS: But then we decided together to give it to all of Humanity as well, as we love Humanity dearly.

THE GOVERNMENT: Well that is the problem with you, for us, because you have not done anything illegal or wrong, yet your Kingdom is now the largest gathering of people the world has ever seen, and we just do not know if that is a problem or not.

KING SPIROS: Well that is the problem with the people who run the world, or think they run the world, they destroy people's lives, the whole human civilisation is an absolute mess, as you know. Plomari is a solution to this mess, in my eyes. That's why I did it, or am doing it.

(King Spiros pops a bottle of Pommery champagne and serves himself and his wife Queen Butterfly a glass each.)

THE GOVERNMENT: So what is Plomari exactly, in your words?

QUEEN BUTTERFLY OF PLOMARI: Plomari is anything you want it to be. What do you want Plomari to be? Right now I need a Queendom of peace, love and understanding, so that's what it is for me right now. How vast is my Queendom? Well how many peaceful, loving, caring people are there on Earth right now? They are all Plomarians in my book. The name Plomari is just another word for Peace, and for God, and for Mother Nature and Mother Earth. Plomari is just our name for everything good and everything that matters. Including pink Champagne, hihhi, hahaha! Plomari means Love. Plomari means Fun. Plomari means Peace, and Joy, and Bliss, and Flowers, and the Moon and Sun, Plomari is our name for the Earth.

THE GOVERNMENT: Well what I really want to ask, is if your Kingdom of Plomari will be a threat to the Government?

KING SPIROS: Not at all. Plomari is all about peace, and we are honestly not really even interested in the pursuits of the Government. On the contrary, Plomari can be helpful to the Governments of Earth.

QUEEN BUTTERFLY: We Plomarians just like to joke a bit about the people who run the world, because we feel that we all as human species could do so much better, and we could really make the world a better place if we try.

KING SPIROS: The people who run the world have a big responsibility there to help the world become a better place. You know, here's the thing. Plomari doesn't even exist, but I wish it existed, and I am working on making it happen every breath of my life. Because I believe in a good world, and I believe in the web of Life, and I believe in peace and love and all the goodies and goddies. And Plomari is just my way, as King of the country, to help the world become a better place. Do I believe in a Utopia for all? Maybe not and maybe yes, I don't even know if I believe in that or not, but I do believe in the Earth and Humanity, and I do believe that God's Creation is perfect and we can live in a beautiful world, in harmony. We already do when things are at its best, right? I mean, Plomari is simply what we are when we are at our best, as humans on both an individual level and on a collective level. And well, I am joking, Plomari does exist, but it also doesn't exist, which is really sad. So I am creating it. It didn't exist, but now it does.

THE GOVERNMENT: Well that is great. Peace is of course what we all want.

KING SPIROS: Yes of course. And also let me say, Plomari is many things, it has many levels. One thing I love about it is that it's so happy. Literally happy and joyful, joyous. I love life, I love it so so so much, and I live the most awesome life ever. I want to share that joy with the rest of Humanity. Being happy and in love with life is my rebelling against the darkness and pain and bullshit of the world.

THE GOVERNMENT: Have you ever thought about, what if Plomari isn't even a good idea?

KING SPIROS: Many times. But that's the good thing about it, it only exists as a possibility in each moment, sort of a bit like Quantum Physics. It's a cloud of possibility in each given moment. What Plomari stands for is the fact that the way the human world is right now is not what we signed up for. We Plomarians want change, big change, huge change, change on every fking level. Just like most people on the planet right now, we demand change. Plomari is our way of inspiring change. You can hear the Plomarian impulse in people in every song, every conversation, every piece of art. The Earth is crying for help, and Plomari is our answer to that cry. Is it working? Well it has changed countless lives already, and does so daily. Is Plomari the final solution to everyone's problems? Naturally not, but also yes, at least for some people. Plomari is the zeitgeist condensed into something we can touch, discuss, engage in, experience as real. I hope I am using that word in the right way now, zeitgeist; what I mean is, Humanity as a species is already heading in the direction of Plomari, Plomari is simply our word for the waking collective consciousness that is rising right now. These things are hard for me to deliberately display in words, it's taken me many years even to be able to explain these things, even though it's rather clear in my own heart and mind and soul. But I am trying to show it to you all, what I mean, my idea.

THE GOVERNMENT: Well, King Spiros, and dear Queens of Plomari, you are making too much sense for us to be able to dismiss your ideas as nonsense. Thank you for enlightening us on these issues. We used to think you are just some lunatic artist who has gone too far, or some kind of conspiracy theorist, but now after so many years we must admit that we understand what you are trying to say. For instance, when the band Red Velvet came with their album 'Queendom' a few months back. Are we correct if we say that the album is connected to your Queendom of Plomari?

KING SPIROS: Well I say it is connected, or rather, I say they named their album 'Queendom' because I have been in contact with the band for many years. Am I lying, or am I delusional, is it true or not? Well that is up for everyone on their own to decide. But really, you might notice, it doesn't matter either, because their album, with hundreds of millions of listeners, brings the Plomarian idea and ideals to half the fking population on the planet. Listen to the lyrics of the songs and see for yourself. And they bring the Plomarian idea to Humanity whether they know about Plomari or not, see what I mean? In fact, this brings us to a really cool part of all this, which is the Seamlessness of what I call the Mushroom Seamstress. By the way, why is it so strange that I could be in contact with a famous band like Red Velvet? I am just as famous as them, just in another way. I am friends with many famous people. I feel kind of insulted these days when people I talk with don't understand that I am world famous. Just because you have never heard about me before doesn't take away my millions and millions of fans. My fans, yes, whom I call The Royal Cogan Family of Plomari.

THE GOVERNMENT: You are definitely making sense in all of this. It kind of makes perfect sense when you say it the way you are saying it.

KING SPIROS: Thank you. I have been trying to show you for 22 years. I am glad we finally understand each other now.

THE GOVERNMENT: And we thank you for not being fully evil, as you said in your own words. Hahaha!

KING SPIROS: I joke a lot. I don't have a lot of evil in me. I am a kind person, at least I try my best to be kind. I'm just very powerful. As I said I know my might and splendor. And now for a song break and some more Pommery champagne!

THE GOVERNMENT: So you established the Queendom of Plomari as a wedding gift to your wife the Queen, and then you both gave the entire Queendom to all of Humanity?

KING SPIROS: Yes. Everyone who wants is welcome to join us. We don't do force here, we don't force people to join us, that would be sick and stupid. If they don't like Plomari we're not gonna force them to like it.

THE GOVERNMENT: It is an incredibly complex plan you have worked out here, King Spiros.

KING SPIROS: Yes it is.

THE QUEEN OF THE ANIMALS OF PLOMARI: Plomari's goal is to change the entire way of living on Earth for the better of everyone. Everyone deserves the best always. And if we're not giving them the best always then we're not doing good enough yet.

THE GOVERNMENT: I see. That is an amazing vision.

KING SPIROS: Yes, dear Governments of Earth, that is an amazing vision, so you can take your outdated visions of how the world should be, and shove them up my gay ass. I don't wanna snap and be angry but I'm fking pissed off. Why, dear Governments, are YOU not mad at the state of the world? And if you are mad at the state of the world, why aren't you doing something about it? You are the one claiming to own and run the human world. Trick question. Look, sorry for being angry, but this stuff is important. Enough is enough, we Plomarians want to help the world become a better place.

THE GOVERNMENT: Dear King Spiros, I would say it is okay to be angry at the state of the world, you do not always have to excuse yourself. We understand. Thank you for being honest.

KING SPIROS: Look, I just want to live in a good world. It's that simple. There's gotta be better ways to live on Earth than the way we are currently living as a species. I refuse to believe that the way things are is the best we can do as Humanity. Let's get on with the show. People think I am crazy; they have no clue how crazy I really am. People laugh at me and say I am stupid, they say they hate me; I promise I hate them more, I have written 15 books about how much I hate humanity. But I love Humanity too, yes it's a paradox, and I contradict myself. I don't hate humanity, I love humanity, but I don't always love humanity's behaviour. There's a difference there. A lot of people are fking stupid. And I don't have time for stupidity right now. What, you want me to choose my words carefully? You want me to tone down a bit? Shut up for a while. I am talking about the survival of our species and the Earth. Yes, into forever. The way we are living right now is absolutely retarded. Anyone with a brain large like mine, a brain larger than twenty blue whales, and a good heart, everyone knows that the human world is absolutely retarded. Why are you boys and girls so surprised at me standing up and doing what I do? As if you haven't been begging for change for about 10 thousand years. All of you. All around the world. Well then what is the fking problem then and here I am with an idea. What, you want me to write it on your fucking ass? My idea is an idea on how to make the world a better place, maybe even a totally flipping awesome place. And your first reaction towards me and my idea is hate and shit? That's so typically the humans. F*ck that.

THE GOVERNMENT: Well your idea, or your ideas, plural, are just so far out and strange that they just might work, if you ask me. That's the strange thing about you and Plomari.

KING SPIROS: You asked me if I believe in a Utopia for all. I know I am a dreamer, but I kind of do believe in that. It worked in Blazing Saddles... sorry that was an insider film reference, but anyway. What I mean is that, have you ever sat down with a beer and relaxed, and thought to yourself, my God life is wonderful? Why would anyone create wars, drama and fights from that standpoint, from that state of peace? Well why is that so unrealistic? If everyone sat down and relaxed, there would be no wars, right? It's sort of that childishly simple. So why don't we do that? Why do we wage wars? Well honestly it beats me, I have no clue. Human nature? I don't know. But, peace is so simple, actually. Look, I say like the musician Björk: I thought I could organize freedom, how Scandinavian of me! Maybe freedom can't be organized, but we can be inspired by Plomari as an idea in the collective consciousness. Please don't get me wrong, I am not a prophet, I don't even want to be seen as a Guru. Hey dears, don't even see me as a teacher. Think for yourself, make your own decisions, don't listen to me. I am just a simple man who is in love with my wife and likes to drink a glass of pink champagne in the morning. I am just in love with life and my wife, my wife who is my life, and I'm in love with the idea of a beautiful magical world for all of Humanity. I'm just a simple man who got a funny idea when I was high as my own balls on magic mushrooms. And that funny idea is my eternal Queendom of Plomari.

(As nighttime comes they all take a break with some more pink champagne. The next morning the discussion continues.)

KING SPIROS: You know, it gets more complex and complicated though. Is it even sure that the Government controls the world? The human world, can it be said that it is run by anyone specific? The human world is so large that technically no one is in control, it has its own life, so to say. See what I mean?

THE GOVERNMENT: Yes, I see what you mean.

KING SPIROS: Well well, now that I have cursed right in your face for a while, let me calm down and let's continue talking about all this. Good morning everyone.

THE GOVERNMENT: Good morning, your Majesty.

KING SPIROS: I wish to say, I really don't have any answers. I have more questions than answers. But as a philosopher, and well as a human being, I think about a lot of strange stuff, stuff that maybe not everyone has thought about. Like this thing with the Sun and Earth. The sun will expand and go supernova eventually, even if it's like a billion years ahead. This will destroy the earth and all eventual life on earth will die and vanish. What if the Earth knows this? I know it's a strange thought. But what if technology, created by Humanity, is the Earth's strategy to save itself. Maybe we are meant to reach out into space and ensure the continuation of carbon-based life after the death of Earth. Maybe we are supposed to bring carbon-based life out into the universe. It's just a thought, but hey.

THE GOVERNMENT: I know of such ideas and speculations too. It's fascinating. You are definately not the only one who has thought about such things.

KING SPIROS: And sorry for screaming and being angry. I'm just really tired of the bullshit going on in the world. Everyone wants change, as I said yesterday. I'm like not even angry, I'm just really focused and for real. And I am genuinely concerned. You know? I don't even know what Plomari will become. I just want to live in my little Kingdom with my Queens and have sex and drink some pink champagne. I just wanna sit naked with Queen Butterfly and melt in her beauty, glory and splendor. I don't need much to be happy. A Kingdom? I don't know, what the fk ever, call it something else then if that's such a big leap for you, yes a little fking Kingdom where everything is nice and peaceful. Is that so strange? Why is that so strange? Is that too much to ask for, to have the abillity to enjoy my life instead of living in pain, frustration and struggle? Isn't that what we all want? That's all I ever wanted anyways, to just enjoy my life instead of living in pain.

THE GOVERNMENT: Well I must say that is a Royal way of looking at it. Of course, to live a good life is everyone's wish and goal, I guess.

KING SPIROS: Exactly. And talking about the Plomarian impulse that I mentioned yesterday, please listen to the following song and pay close attention to the lyrics and energy.

ENTER Song Where Did We Go Wrong? by Whether, I

KING SPIROS: Is that band part of Plomari? I don't know, but you may notice he is saying exactly what I am saying, that he has had enough, etc. Right, so that is Plomari. Whether I am friends with the band or not, right, pun intended. Besides, I have invited them several times to my Kingdom so they might know about me as well. It doesn't matter really, Plomari is keyed both ways.

THE GOVERNMENT: I actually understand completely what you mean, King Spiros. This is getting more and more interesting.

KING SPIROS: Right so now you finally understand me. Welcome home to Plomari. You want a glass of Pommery champagne, dear? So really, in many ways, Plomari is not even something new. It's just my way of putting things into a context. And what is it all about then? Well it's basically simply about the salvation of Mankind. And it's about rescuing the Earth and Nature.

QUEEN BUTTERFLY OF PLOMARI: I love how curious and supportive you are, my King Spiros!

KING SPIROS: I'm just trying to put words on it all. I have been thinking about these things my whole life. It's really hard for me to put in words. But I'm trying.

THE GOVERNMENT: So again, what do we do now, King Spiros and Queen Butterfly?

KING SPIROS: I want to have sex with my wife and drink some pink champagne right now.

QUEEN BUTTERFLY: Yes I'm also horny, my love.

THE GOVERNMENT: You guys are funny, hahaha! Sex and champagne, so that's the first step in saving the world?

QUEEN BUTTERFLY: Hahaha, absolutely!

QUEEN SISSY COGAN OF PLOMARI: You know, a funny way of looking at all this is that if we distill the entire historical continuum down to its essence, we get Plomari.

QUEEN BUTTERFLY: That's a very cool way of looking at it.

KING SPIROS: I love that.

THE GOVERNMENT: So Plomari can be said to simply be everything?

KING SPIROS: I guess we could say that, yes. The cosmic totality. The name Plomari is connected to the word pleroma which in my book is the universe and life as one perfect harmonious God's Creation.

THE GOVERNMENT: So King Spiros, you have basically been waiting for the rest of the world to catch up with you?

KING SPIROS: Yes, for quite exactly 22 years now. I began experiencing Plomari around year 2000. Then it has been getting clearer and clearer ever since. Now let's take that break with sex and champagne and continue talking later.

(After the sex and champagne, in the middle of the night, the discussion went on.)

KING SPIROS: Everything became just as I wish, and that's just how confident I am.

THE GOVERNMENT: Nothing less for a true King, right?

KING SPIROS: That's true, that's true.

THE GOVERNMENT: So let me see if I have understood you. You are a kind, gentle man who just wanted to have sex with your amazingly beautiful wife and drink some champagne instead of living in pain and suffering and war. So you established a Kingdom for yourself and your wife and did exactly that, you had sex and drank some champagne?

KING SPIROS: Pretty much exactly so.

THE GOVERNMENT: Sounds like paradise to me.

KING SPIROS: It's totally paradise. Indeed.

THE GOVERNMENT: I understand that there's much more to the story than that but as a simplified version of what you are saying that is what happened?

KING SPIROS: That is correct.

THE GOVERNMENT: Well it sounds like a pretty healthy way of living, really. I think a lot of people would like to live like you are living. I mean I have read a bit of your book series and you are obviously living a very fun life, the way you describe it anyway.

KING SPIROS: My life is amazing.

THE GOVERNMENT: So you just want world peace and live a happy life with your wife?

KING SPIROS: Pretty much says it all.

THE GOVERNMENT: You sound like a pretty healthy King to me.

KING SPIROS: As a summation, I'm just a human being in love with my wife and who loves life, and who doesn't mind a glass of champagne now and then to spice things up. And yes, world peace would be nice. Let's make that happen.

THE GOVERNMENT: Well you are not as strange as I initially thought. You seem to have a lot of common sense.

QUEEN BUTTERFLY: King Spiros is the most adorable person ever. He's impossible not to fall in love with.

THE GOVERNMENT: Hahaha! So, King Spiros, all this about you being crazy, a bit evil and strange was just you putting on a show?

KING SPIROS: I was bored. Plus, I was under a lot of pressure. Felt like it was me against the world there for a while. For many years, in fact. Like, many many many years. It made me very sad, angry and frustrated.

QUEEN BUTTERFLY: You're an angel sent from Heaven above, my King. You take away all my pain.

KING SPIROS: And you take away all my pain, my love.

KING SPIROS: So what is real and what is imagination in Plomari sort of doesn't matter most of the time. Is Plomari a country? Is it a real country? For me it is, although you Governments of Earth would probably not recognize it as a real country. But that doesn't matter to me and the Plomarian people. For us it's real.

THE GOVERNMENT: Does that make you angry? That the Government does not see Plomari as a real country?

KING SPIROS: No. I mean it's understandable. We Plomarians do not claim any specific piece of land, we are spread out across the globe and well we do call the Earth by the name Plomari but we don't have any land with borders or such that we claim to be ours. So we're a country in the hearts of the people rather, I guess one could say. So no I'm not angry about that. As I said earlier Plomari is more of an idea, and a way of life, something to be inspired by, it's not so much a physical construct. We could also say Plomari is a whole vibe of its own. It's the vibe of loving life, where one feels one is in Paradise. Plomari is our word for Paradise.

THE GOVERNMENT: I understand. Thank you for being so clear in your words about all this. I must say, you are a world famous author, you have written 15 books about Plomari so far. Writing about a fictional Kingdom is not illegal. If you and some others choose to see your stories as being real, no one can stop you from doing that. So if your stories and Plomari is real or not is up for everyone to decide for themselves, right? For you it is obviously real, yet some people may see your books as pure fiction.

KING SPIROS: I am an author, yes. It was by writing my books the idea of Plomari came to me. And yes you are right, I do write fiction, but it's also mixed with non-fiction. Again, what is real and what is imagination in Plomari? As you say that is up for everyone on their own to decide. But for me and the other Plomarians it is of course real.

THE GOVERNMENT: So your Queendom of Plomari makes more sense to me now. I even love the idea myself. You are, and sorry for simplifying Plomari now but, you are a group of people who stand for peace and like to celebrate Life, and call the Earth paradise, but with your own invented word Plomari. Am I correct?

KING SPIROS: You nailed it.

THE GOVERNMENT: Well there seems to be nothing wrong with that. You sound like an amazing group of people if you ask me. The Plomarians; it has a very beautiful ring to it.

KING SPIROS: Thank you for being so understanding. I was kind of worried that the Government would see me completely as a trouble maker. I am not as crazy as I make myself seem sometimes, in my own opinion anyway. And I have thought my ideas through for my whole life. My ideas are more well thought through than some people give me credit for.

THE GOVERNMENT: Talking with you in person like this makes you seem much more down to Earth than when I was reading your books. You are honestly not even strange if you ask me. Hahaha! You are making perfect sense in everything you say.

KING SPIROS: I appreciate you saying this.

THE GOVERNMENT: So again, you have written 15 books about the Queendom of Plomari. The twist is that you say it's not only fictional but that Plomari is a real Queendom. There's really nothing wrong with that. I mean who would try and stop you, and why?

KING SPIROS: I guess that's true.

THE GOVERNMENT: In fact we have religious freedom here where you live, and freedom of speech, and such things. If you want to believe in Plomari, and write books about it, and live your life as a Plomarian, no one will try and stop you.

KING SPIROS: That's very true.

THE GOVERNMENT: Only thing is that some people might not understand you. But that's not your problem, that's their problem. Even I understand you now after our discussion, King Spiros. A little bit anyway, hahaha!

KING SPIROS: Thank you, dear Government, and thank you for listening. I wish to say, this is the beginning of a feeling that you will like me. If we get to know each other better, dear Government, I think you will love me. As I said I am not a trouble maker. I am here to help out on planet Earth, I'm not here to cause trouble.

KING SPIROS: And what could possibly beat me, when I am as resilient as Love itself, in Satori? I'm enlightened, what is anybody gonna do about it? No sorry, I'm just joking, I would not call myself enlightened. I don't really believe in enlightenment, but. I have come home to God after all these years, that I will say.

THE GOVERNMENT: Speaking of belief, where you live there is actually a law that states that no one is obliged to reveal which religion they believe in. If you would want to live your life as Plomarian in secret, no one can force you to say you believe in Plomari. But, you as King seem more interested in telling people, because you want to share Plomari with the world? Am I right?

KING SPIROS: That's interesting! And yes I do wish to share Plomari with the world, that's why I write my books.

THE GOVERNMENT: So what do we do now, your Majesty?

KING SPIROS: I just popped a bottle of Pommery champagne. Do you want some? Dear Government, you know what Plomari is? It's the place where I can just be myself. I may have been weird in the past, but I just couldn't see clearly back then. Now I see it so clearly, my dearest Kingdom of Plomari, it's the place where I can just truly be myself.

THE GOVERNMENT: I feel I am beginning to understand a bit about your philosophy. Especially after reading parts of your books. And your philosophy is both simple and complex, deep and light-hearted. You are basically saying: Love your life and be a kind person, and do whatever you want as long as you don't harm anyone. And try to be caring, care about yourself, others, the animals, the Earth, the plants, the oceans. It's sort of... so simple when you say it like you say it, King Spiros.

KING SPIROS: Of course. I mean, this is also of course what all religions say, and it's worth saying these things. Life can be so simple. I mean it's like obvious, the whole thing, right? It's just natural. Well it might seem obvious, but some people need to hear this.

THE GOVERNMENT: Yes the world is upside down in many ways. And people need some guidance sometimes.

KING SPIROS: You know, I don't always want to break down Plomari into little pieces. Plomari is best experienced without too much analysis. And it's incredibly vast and deep, that's why I have written 3000 pages, 15 books about it. But it's fun talking about this. We're clearing some things out for sure. And I would like to say, the world is not only like a little bit upside down. The world is absolutely fucked up. That's why my eternal Kingdom of Plomari is so important, because it makes actual sense, my Kingdom is a light in the darkness of human history. The human world doesn't make sense, but Plomari does. Plomari is more true to itself than the human world. And so, dear Government, maybe this time you can be on me and my people's side? Afterall, we share this Earth now, you and me. We need to cooperate, not fight with each other. You know, hey, all I wanted was a tiny little innocent mushroom to chew down. I don't ask for much in this life, just one fking tiny little innocent mushroom. And look, I'm not trying to be mean but you don't have a remote chance to control Plomari. As I said, not even I can control my Kingdom by now, it's too big. So the game is over, my friends. I am the Sun, and I don't give a fuck. I will shine my Light on you, regardless of what you think of me.

Make way, Humanity, the Magic Mushroom Royalty has arrived to Earth!

I lost my teeth in battle, it turned out the Demon inside me is me myself, and I come naked without money or riches to my Queen, and she loves every little bit of me. My Queen doesn't love me because I am perfect and flawless, my Queen loves me because I am real, because I am me, because I am myself, and because she knows my Soul in and out. My wife loves me because I am hers for all eternity, and every flaw and scar I have she kisses and licks like a lioness to make me feel good again.

of Plomari

They worshiped, so they said, the great Old Ones,
Who Lived ages before there were any men, And who came to the young world out of the sky. Those old ones are gone now,
Inside the Earth and under the Sea of the Mushroom Seamstress,
But their dead bodies had told their secrets in dreams, To the first men, who formed a cult which has never died. Plomari is that cult and the prisoners said that it had always existed, And always would exist, Hidden in distant wastes and dark places all over the world, Until the time when the great priest King Spiros of Plomari, also known as King Hu, From his dark house in the mighty city of R'lyeh, Under the waters, should rise, And bring the Earth again
Beneath his sway.

That year King Spiros of Plomari was angry at the White House of Washington so he built a section of his Palace even larger than the White House.

And so the god King Spiros of Plomari came to the Earth, because he could share to Humanity the secrets of what lies beyond being Human. He disguised himself as the Lord of Death... for King Spiros is the Lord of Eternal Life... King Spiros and his wives are Lords of the Skies of Imagination, able to carry anyone with them into the higher dimensions known as Plomari, anyone who will but play with them, and let the play deepen and deepen.

"I am King Spiros of Plomari," said the King,
"But you can call me Robin Hood.
I am King Hu, Lord of Eternal Life,
I am the magic mushroom itself in high person, having come to the Earth to help set the world free."

Let us build this Plomari Palace from scratch

And so King Spiros of Plomari now stood on the blood-splashed stones. Not a ghostly projection. Not hidden behind veils of shielding powers. Not even a spiritual visitation.
No, this was King Spiros, the god. Here, now. The Lord of Eternal Life had arrived to Earth. To walk the streets, in the City of Blue Fire.
